WHAT IS AN ARBITRATION AGREEMENT?

An arbitration agreement is a written contract in which two or more parties agree to settle a dispute outside of court. The arbitration agreement is ordinarily a clause in a larger contract. The dispute may be about the performance of either party relating to a contract, a claim of unfair or illegal treatment in the transaction. When the transaction involves the purchase of a motor vehicle, the dispute may involve a faulty part of the vehicle as an example OR the dispute may involve a disagreement on the terms of the transaction, the condition of the vehicle during the purchase or any other general issue that may arise between the parties.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

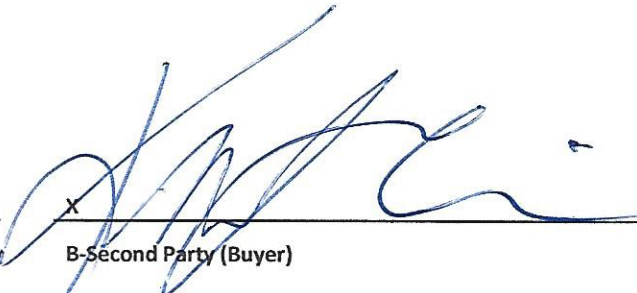

Upon written request of either the buyer or seller (the "parties"), any controversy or claim between or among the parties hereto including but not limited to those arising out of or relating to the sale of the vehicle described, any of the documentation, or any related agreements or instruments executed in connection with the transaction described, including any claim based on or arising from an alleged tort, shall be determined by binding arbitration. This agreement to arbitration is in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq), the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, and the "Special Rules" set forth; unless the parties in their respective sole discretion, agree in writing to mediate the dispute prior to submitting to binding arbitration. In the event of any inconsistency, the Special Rules shall control. The parties agree that any judgment assigned to either party from arbitration (the "award") may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. Any party to this Agreement may bring an action, including a summary or expedited proceeding, to compel arbitration of any controversy or claim to which this agreement applies in any court having jurisdiction over such action. The party that requests arbitration has the burden to initiate the arbitration proceedings pursuant to and by complying with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association and shall pay all associated administrative and filing fees.

The parties contract and agree that they will be legally bound by the award and that a judgment may be entered on such an award. If any party fails to comply with an award or unsuccessfully challenges an award, that party must pay all of the other party's costs associated to the arbitration, including all reasonable attorney's fees incurred to defend and/or enforce such an award, and legal interest on the amount awarded.

This document substantially affects your legal rights. By agreeing to arbitrate, the parties give up their legal right to bring a court action against the other and to have a jury trial.
